WORKSHOP

LET'S MAKE A MOSAIC

The aim of this workshop is to reveal the mosaic technique in a practical way.

This stylistic decorative technic has a heightened presence in modernist architecture. The best examples of it are Park Güell, la Pedrera, Casa Batlló or the Palau de la Música Catalana. The mosaics are usually crafted with ceramic materials, but we can also find some examples made with glass pieces like in the Güell Palace.

And it is with this unique material "glass", that we suggest you to work and use the traditional mosaic technique, making a "coaster". Once the activity is over, we invite you to discover the rest of the craft workshops on the premises that you can visit on your leisure.

The potters will demonstrate their creations. They will explain you how the lathe works and how a ceramic piece is created.

Afterwards, you can choose a piece ready to paint and decorate using the dry brush technique. This technique allows to combine different colors and layers to create several textures as a relief.

The pieces will measure between 12 and 15 cm and you can take it home with you the same day.

CREATE A DESIGN ON GLASS

Barcelona is known for being a modernist city with many buildings decorated with stained glass windows. Casa Batlló, the Sagrada Família and Park Güell are examples of this architectural style.

We propose a workshop to bring out the artist in you, let your imagination fly and create a painted glass piece. You will design a drawing by hand, then you will transfer the design to the piece of glass and with several special paints, you will colour the piece, playing with the different luminosities and textures of this old and decorative material.

After the workshop you can visit the stained glass collection in the Fran Daurel Museum, made with different techniques such as blown glass or fusing.

Minimum: 10 students per turn

You will choose different dyes, some with letters, others with numbers to personalize the bracelet, you can engrave your name on it, another person's if you prefer to give someone as present, or your favourite numbers...! there are endless possibilities!

You will finish the workshop by experimenting with the sewing technique and you will sew using a leather thread to decorate the bracelet. And then... it's time to show your bracelet!

WORKSHOP

DESIGN YOUR NECKLACE WITH FIRE-BLOWN ENAMEL

Hot enamel is a technique used in jewellery to give colour and texture to rings, pendants, bracelets and all kinds of metal accessories made from gold, silver and copper.

It is glass powder that is placed on metal, combining different colours, recreating drawings, creating shapes, etc. When the design is ready, the piece is baked through a cooking process (that varies depending on the metal type, the glazes and the size of the piece,) to melt and stick to the piece that is vitrifying.

You should have an idea about what design to make on a square copper base. You can combine different glazes and even draw. Afterwards, the pieces will be baked for 5 minutes and left it to cool. Finally, you will polish them, and you will pass the thread as a pendant... and then it is ready!

Minimum: 10 students per turn

Maximum: 25 students per turn

1h 30min

Spanish, Catalan (French and English, supplement per language)

The price includes admission to the enclosure and the workshop. The piece made will be ready to take home at the end of the activity.
