WORKSHOP

LET'S MAKE A MOSAIC

The aim of this workshop is to reveal the mosaic technique in a practical way.

This stylistic device has a heightened presence in modernist architecture. A good indication of it are Park Güell, la Pedrera, Casa Batlló or the Palau de la Música Catalana. The mosaics are usually crafted with ceramic materials, but we can also find some examples made with glass pieces like in the Güell Palace.

And it is with this unique material, glass, that we suggest you working the traditional mosaic technique making a coaster.. Once the activity has finished, we invite you to discover the handicraft workshops in the site that you can visit at your leisure.

WORKSHOP

CERAMIC PAINTING

POBLE ESPANYOL

On the occasion of the inauguration of the new ceramic kiln, we propose a ceramic painting workshop where you will learn the dry brush technique.

The potters will demonstrate their craft, show you how the lathe works and how a ceramic piece is created. Afterwards, you can choose a piece (already fired) to paint and decorate using the dry brush technique. This technique allows to combine different layers and colours to create several textures as a relief.

The pieces will measure between 12 and 15 cm and you can take it home with you the same day.

Minimum: 15 students per turn

Maximum: 25 students per turn

1h 30 m

Spanish, Catalan (French and English, supplement per language)

The price includes admission to the enclosure and the workshop. You will have the pieces on the same day as the activity (After 1 hour of drying).

CREATE A DESIGN ON GLASS

Barcelona is known for being a modernist city with many buildings decorated with stained glass windows. Casa Batlló, the Sagrada Família and Park Güell are examples of this architectural style.

We propose a workshop to bring out the artist in you, let your imagination fly and create a painted glass piece. You will design a drawing by hand, then you will transfer the design to the piece of glass and, with several special paintings, you will colour the piece, playing with the different luminosities and textures of this old and decorative material.

After the workshop you can visit the glass collection in the Fran Daurel Museum, made with different techniques such as blown glass or fusing.

Minimum: 10 students per turn

Maximum: 25 students per turn

1h 30 m

Spanish, Catalan (French and English, supplement per language)

The price includes admission to the enclosure and the workshop. You will have the pieces on the same day as the activity (After 1 hour of drying).

WORKSHOP

DESIGN YOUR NECKLACE WITH FIRE-BLOWN ENAMEL

Hot enamel is a technique used in jewellery to give colour and texture to rings, pendants, bracelets and all kinds of metal accessories made from gold, silver and copper.

It is glass powder that is placed on metal, combining different colours, recreating drawings, creating shapes, etc. When the design is ready, the piece is baked through a cooking process that varies depending on the metal, the glazes and the size of the piece, to melt and stick to the piece that is vitrifying.

You should have a think about what design to make on a square copper base. You can combine different glazes and even draw. Afterwards, the pieces will be baked for 5 minutes and allowed to cool. Finally, you will polish them, and you will pass the thread as a pendant... and then it is ready!

Minimum: 10 students per turn

Maximum: 25 students per turn

1h 30min

Spanish, Catalan (French and English, supplement per language)

The price includes admission to the enclosure and the workshop. The piece made will be ready to take home at the end of the activity.

PAELLA COOKING SHOW

Paella is probably the most well-known recipe of Spanish cuisine. Indeed, it is a typical dish of the Mediterranean region, which is characterized by a healthy and balanced diet.

There are many varieties: seafood paella, vegetarian, sea and mountain paella, Valencian paella... all of them delicious!

1. PAELLA WORKSHOP

We propose a gastronomic workshop for students to know the secrets of this dish. Accompanied by the chef and following their instructions, they will collaborate in the preparation of a paella to be later tasted together.

2. TALLER DE PAELLA + COMIDA

The restaurants propose you to complement the workshop so that the activity serves as lunch and/or dinner. All of them offer a drink and a dessert and some, in addition, a salad. Cook to eat!

CHOCOLATE AND CHURROS

We encourage you to try chocolate with churros, a typical sweet of Spanish cuisine from the early nineteenth century, originally from Madrid. Churros are a paste made basically with flour that is fried and powdered with sugar and traditionally eaten with hot chocolate. Chocolate is usually 100% melted cocoa to bathe the churros in it and taste this delicious combination of flavors.

It is customary to be served as a special breakfast, although it is also possible to serve it as a snack, so you can enjoy this dish before or after the visit or an activity in Poble Espanyol. We're sure you'll love them!

We also offer crêpes, waffles, ice creams and natural smoothies options. Ask us!

Enjoy your meal!

GUIDED TOUR

Poble Espanyol was inaugurated in 1929 for the Barcelona International Exhibition. The forecast was that it would last only as long as the Exhibition was in operation, but it was so well accepted that it was finally maintained and now is more than 90 years old. ¡Come and discover it!

Accompanied by a guide and for an hour, you will learn all the history and anecdotes of its construction and you will discover the cultural, architectural, gastronomic and landscape diversity of Spain in a single space.

You will discover that it is a village full of surprises, as you will have the opportunity to walk through its streets and squares while admiring the artisan work, the main popular celebrations of the country within the Fiesta space and the contemporary works of great artists such as Picasso, Miró and Dalí. In short, you will discover Spain... in a single visit!

After the visit we encourage you to visit “A photographic journey. The construction of Poble Espanyol” a unique exposition where you will understand the construction process of the enclosure.

Do you want to look around Poble Espanyol at your leisure? You can!

Located in the green lungs of Montjuïc and surrounded by nature, Poble Espanyol is a unique site that displays Spain's architectural, culinary and cultural diversity in one village. It is a safe place with no cars out in the open where you can take a quiet walk and discover a long list of spaces and corners: 117 life-size buildings; a contemporary art museum with works by Picasso, Dalí or Miró, amongst other great artists; audiovisual facilities; picnic areas for lunch or restaurants if you prefer that option.

Do you like handicrafts? Take a close look at the hard work of more than 15 professionals that create products with their hands and, if you fancy, buy one of their exclusive pieces.

Discover the soul of Spain in the new party space where you will be able to experience Spain's most famous popular celebrations from the inside such as Sanfermines or Castells, and stop off at the feeling spaces which showcase the country's culinary and scenic diversity. And to round off the visit, don't forget to throw yourselves down the big slides in the Sculptural Garden or, if you prefer, relax in the Main Square with a soft drink. There are so many options. Come and visit us!

 From 10 a.m.

FLAMENCO

Flamenco is a typical art from a region in Southern Spain, Andalusia. It is an artistic expression born of the influence and mixture of different cultures: Arabic, Gypsy, Christian and Jewish. Seeing a live show is to feel the percussive of the palms, the rhythm of the heels, a demonstration of strength and a feeling that will not leave you indifferent.

For this reason we propose several options to know this energetic dance declared Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO in 2010.

The restaurants Tablao de Carmen and La Bodeguita offer the possibility of watching this live show during dinner or a practical workshop to learn the basic beat of flamenco music.
